Audio & live-production specialist · 15+ years hands-on · Available immediately

SUMMARY

Audio production and live-event specialist with 15+ years of hands-on experience producing, mixing, and mastering records, running live shows, and delivering finished productions on deadline. Self-taught to a professional level on complex production systems and software, and comfortable guiding performers, collaborators, and clients through technical production from planning to execution. Experienced with production budgets, purchasing, equipment care, and inventory from running my own studio and from warehouse work. Quick study on any new console, rig, or system, and looking to bring that to the School of Theatre, Television, and Film's productions.

PRODUCTION QUALIFICATIONS

- Audio (deep): producing, mixing, mastering, and live sound across 15+ years; released records and full albums delivered end to end
- Training & guidance: directing artists and collaborators through recording sessions and live shows; clear, patient hands-on teaching style
- Production coordination: planning, scheduling, budgeting, purchasing, and inventory tracking for shows and studio productions
- Lighting & projection (working knowledge): film-production training (LA Film School) plus video production and on-set experience within full professional lighting, camera, and sound departments; eager to deepen theatrical specialization

PRODUCTION EXPERIENCE

Founder / Producer & Technical Lead — Onyx Studio

San Diego, CA | 2024 to Present

- Producing a 13-track album for a client artist: full production, mixing, and creative-technical direction, guiding the artist through every session
- Manage production budgets, purchasing, and equipment inventory for all studio work
- Coordinate schedules and deliverables across multiple concurrent client productions
- Build and deliver video and web content using DaVinci Resolve and modern production tools

DJ & Creative Director — Love For Sale

Los Angeles, CA | 2019 to 2020

- Ran live audio and music for a weekly comedy night, co-created with host Michael Longfellow (SNL)
- Managed event production from booking through execution: setup, sound, timing, and teardown
- Designed the room's sonic identity and adapted the mix live to the crowd and performers

Music Producer & Touring Performer — OneOfUs Productions

Antwerp, Belgium | 2017 to 2019

- Produced, mixed, and mastered the independent release "Outta Control" end to end
- Performed at venues and video shoots across Belgium, working with house audio systems and running sound checks
- Produced a full album on a mobile-only workflow (GarageBand to Logic), proving adaptability with limited tools

Background Actor & Production — Central Casting

Los Angeles, CA | 2016 to 2019

- Worked on HBO productions, Apple commercials, and Love & Hip Hop within full-scale professional lighting, camera, and sound departments
- Learned on-set discipline: hitting marks, respecting departments, and keeping productions on schedule

Independent Recording Artist — Self-Released

San Diego / Los Angeles | 2008 to 2016

- Self-taught digital audio workstations, mixing, and mastering from scratch; first release reached 10,000 plays in one month
- Released multiple projects and built a regional following through relentless iteration
